Welcome to SNU International Admissions

Thank you for your interest in Seoul National University. Our programs are among the most prestigious in Korea, and we are recognized globally for producing reputable leaders and scholars in their respective fields. Students will discover here a dedication to maintaining high standards in both education and research, in addition to a wealth of resources for career aspirations.

The University welcomes students from a variety of backgrounds and recognizes that international students provide diverse perspectives and contribute to a dynamic learning atmosphere.

International admission is offered for undergraduate and graduate programs in 16 colleges and 9 professional schools. During each academic year, SNU offers both spring and fall intake. All International Admissions are categorized into either; International Admissions I (Foreign students), or International Admissions II (Korean students who received all of their primary and secondary education outside of Korea)

- This booklet for undergraduate freshmen applicants contains information regarding your application options to SNU, categories of candidates, and the admissions criteria and processes.
- For more information about other aspects of the admissions process, please consult the admissions staff below.

For those who don't have any means of internet access

The online application period for the fall 2014 intake is held from Jan. 6, 2014 to Feb. 27, 2014. If they have no means to apply online during the designated period, applicants may submit their application materials via post or in person. In such a case, please make sure that the application fee is included in the application packet. The application packet must arrive before the deadline (18:00, Feb. 27, 2014). Otherwise, the submission will not be accepted.

Things You Should Know Before You Apply

- ✓ Applicants should make sure they type in the correct personal information, when undertaking the online application process. In principle, modifications or cancellations are not allowed after completing the online application.
- ✓ Applicants are fully responsible for any disadvantages they may incur due to errors and omissions in the information provided.
- ✓ All of the submitted documents are not returnable, and the application fee is not refundable.
- ✓ Admission once granted will be rescinded, if false information or unfair practices for admission played any part in the process. This applies even after a student is enrolled at SNU.
- ✓ Applicants are not allowed to utilize a cross application approach, which can lead to disqualification. Cross-application is defined as when an applicant is given more than one registration number after submitting multiple applications. Submissions of multiple applications mean either applying more than one undergraduate course, or applying both undergraduate and graduate course at once.
- ✓ Admitted students to SNU are not allowed to register for any other universities in Korea which are scheduled to hold the same academic year for admissions as that of SNU. If an admitted student does not comply with this regulation, the admissions will be rescinded.
- ✓ International Admissions II applicants are subject to the number of applications to be made per same academic year. This is in accordance with the new regulation introduced in 2013, which limits the number to six applications.
- ✓ SNU does not disclose information related to admissions decisions.
- ✓ The admissions staff reserves the right to require additional documents from applicants, should there be any need to clarify the eligibility or verify the authenticity of the submitted materials.
- ✓ International Admissions II applicants are advised to note that SNU does not generally acknowledge international schools located in Korea as foreign schools.
- ✓ Applicants with dual citizenship are not recognized as being eligible for International Admissions I. Those applicants are only subject to the Eligibility Status for International Admissions II as defined on page 5.
- ✓ 'A Conditional Offer' can be granted to those applicants who have submitted the 'IB Predicted Grade.' SNU will inform the applicant of the required Final Grade that must be met. Those who are holding a 'Conditional Offer' must report the 'Final IB Grade' by July 11. Contingent upon a 'Final IB Grade' which provides evidence of the satisfactory completion of the relevant courses, SNU will announce their Final Decision on the 'Conditional Offer' on July 22, 2014.
- ✓ Starting from 2015, Spring semester students of International Admissions II are not allowed to apply for Fall semester admissions at other universities in Korea as well as at SNU.

Admissions Eligibility and Requirements

International applicants must meet either the admissions eligibility under International Admissions I or II by August 31, 2014. Nationality/Citizenship status must be met by the applicant deadline. Considering the particularities of admissions for international students, admissions eligibility status of any ambiguous case is to be decided by the Committee at the Office of Admissions through the internal process.

Admissions Criteria

Admissions decisions are based on an overall evaluation of the applicant's academic prospects, taking a holistic approach. The basis of such an evaluation is the documents submitted by the applicant, which are used to assess the applicant's academic achievements, relevant extracurricular activities, interest in the applied course, language proficiency, performance competency, and other factors.

Depending on the policy of the specific college or department, the applicant may be asked to undertake interviews, examinations, and/or a performance test. In such a case, the applicant will be individually notified of these details by the corresponding department or college. The following documents are to be examined as the admissions criteria;

1. Academic Transcripts
2. Personal Statement and Study Plan
3. Letters of Recommendation
4. Proof of language proficiency: TOPIK, KLPT, TEPS, TOEFL, IELTS, TOEIC, HSK, JLPT, DELF/DALF, DELE , ZD, or other approved type.
5. Official school introduction/profile(s) published by the applicant's high school or the Ministry of Education; such documents may include information on the high school's curriculum, the availability of advanced coursework, the student body size, the grade distribution of enrolled students, standardized test performance distributions, the student selection process, admissions requirements, and the ratio of students pursuing tertiary education.
6. Supplementary materials will be taken into consideration for admissions decisions, if submitted. The following documents are examples of supplementary materials, though this is not an exhaustive list.
 - The relevant country's qualifying test for high school graduation or a university admission test: British GCE A-Level, Japanese Admission Center Exam, Chinese Unified Exam, German Abitur, French Baccalaureate, etc.
 - Standardized tests and other indicators of academic achievement: IB Diploma, IB Certificate, AP, SAT, AICE, AEA, etc.
 - Records of advanced coursework: AP, IB, Honors, etc.
 - Official letter or other documents by the high school that indicates the applicant's class rank or percentile (if not stated in the applicant's academic transcript)

Things You Should Know After You Are Admitted

- ✓ Applicants whose graduation status was pending during the time of application should submit their Graduation Certificates to the Office of Admissions within 15 days after their enrollment at SNU. Failure to submit such a document without a valid reason may invalidate any admissions offer.
- ✓ Since July 14, 2007, Seoul National University has complied with the Apostille Requirements in accordance with the 1961 Hague Convention. Accordingly, newly admitted students from countries which are signatories to the convention must attach and submit of Apostille. Students from countries which are NOT signatories to the convention must submit substitute documents; which can be official documents legalized by a Korean consular office, or another form of authentication (e.g. a Certificate of Authentication or a Certificate of Overseas Educational Institutions) issued by the Korean Embassy or Consulate. Please refer to Appendix 3 for details.
- ✓ The admissions committee will decide whether or not each student should take an additional Korean test. Admitted students who are notified of the requirement to take Korean Proficiency Test at the SNU Language Education Institute (LEI) should take the Korean language test on the scheduled date. Admitted students may be limited to certain courses, if their Korean language proficiency is level 4 or below.
- ✓ Admitted students may not defer enrollment to a later semester. Students who wish to defer enrollment must re-apply, or register first and then submit a leave of absence.
- ✓ After the announcement of the admissions decision, admitted students will be given a booklet containing information about scholarships, campus accommodations, and other information.

Appendix 3 APOSTILLE Requirements For Newly Admitted Students

Since July 14, 2007, the Republic of Korea has been part of the 1961 Hague Convention abolishing the Requirement of Legalization for Foreign Public Documents. The Convention provides for the simplified certification of public (including notarized) documents to be used in countries that have joined the convention.

The Apostille ensures that public documents issued in one signatory country will be recognized as valid in another signatory country.

- Apostille certificates are to be submitted within 15 days after enrollment at SNU.
- For information regarding how to get an Apostille, please refer to the website <http://www.hcch.net> (Apostille Section).

A. Newly admitted students from countries which are signatories to the convention must meet the following requirements:

❖ Please refer to the list of signatory countries on Apostille certificates on page 13.

1. Official certificates (transcripts, diplomas, etc.) from public schools or institutions should be submitted with the attachment of "Apostille".
2. Official certificates (transcripts, diplomas, etc.) from private schools or institutions, however, should be officially notarized by a notary, agency or any other authority competent under the law of the country of origin of the certificates, and then, should be submitted with the attachment of "Apostille".

N.B. All documents should be in English or Korean. If it's in any other language, you must submit a notarized/certified translation (in Eng. or Kor.) completed by a public notary in the country in which the document was originally produced.

B. Admitted students from countries which are NOT signatories to the convention and do not recognize the Apostille must meet the following requirements:

1. Official certificates (transcripts, diplomas, etc.) must be legalized by a Korean consular officer in the country which issued the certificates.
2. Applicants from these countries should submit the official certificates with the attachment of an Authentication (ex. Certificate of Authentication or Certificate of Overseas Educational Institutions) issued by the Korean Embassy or Consulate.

N.B. All documents should be in English or Korean. If it's in any other language, you must submit a notarized/certified translation (in Eng. or Kor.) completed by a public notary in the country in which the document was originally produced.
